

10.3. Parent's area dashboard

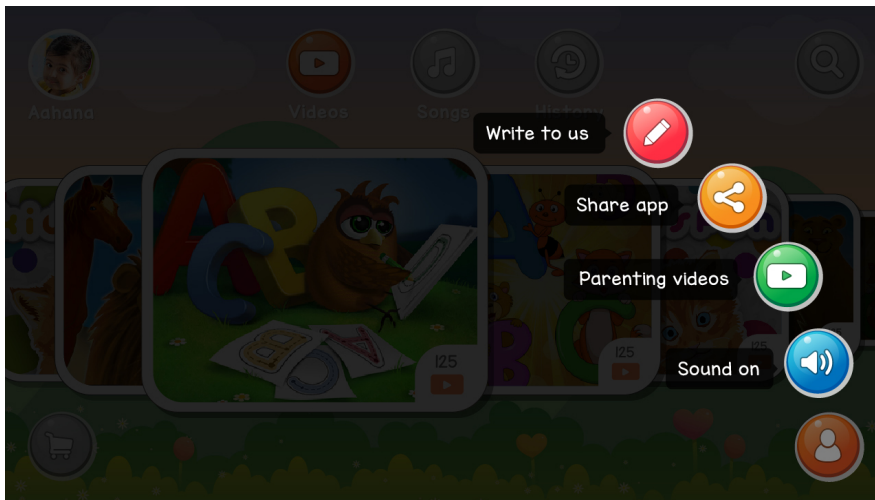

Figure 29: Parent Dashboard

The parent's area dashboard has moved away from a dedicated page to a set of buttons on an overlay. This enables quick navigation to and from the parent's area.

UI COMPONENT	DETAILS	EXPECTED BEHAVIOUR
Background	-The parent's dashboard is placed over a translucent black overlay	On tap of anywhere other than the buttons should close the parent's area dashboard.
Sound button	-The sound control button is the first button in the list of options available in the parent's area.	-If sounds is enabled, the button will show the sound on icon and text. -On tap, sound will be disabled and the button will show the sound off icon and text. -If the sound is disabled, the button will show the sound off icon and text. -On tap, sound will be enabled and the button will show the sound on icon and text
Parenting videos	-The parenting videos button and icon is the second option in the list of options available in the parent's area.	-If the user taps on the parenting videos, the user should be navigated to the parenting videos category page.
Share App	-The share app button and icon is the third option in the list of options available in the parent's area.	-If the user taps on share app, all the apps that enable share of the app URL and share text should be opened as options.